

Does your student work hard and demonstrate a commitment to learning?

Can your student do things now that he or she couldn't do before tutoring?

Has your student overcome challenges in his or her quest for improved literacy?

Has learning English had an impact on your student's life, in small or large ways?

Submit a Nomination for LCMC's Outstanding Student Award

Each year, the LCMC Board of Directors recognizes students who have achieved significant gains as a result of the tutoring experience. Recipients of the Outstanding Student Award will receive their certificates at the Annual Meeting.

On the reverse side, please write a brief summary about your student's accomplishments. Consider such things as what your student has achieved in tutoring sessions, and how those new skills have been applied in the student's community, family, school, or job. (If you are nominating multiple students, please attach additional sheets of paper with the relevant information).

Please submit your nomination to the LCMC office by March 15, 2010.
